This was noted and no additional comments were made.</li> <li>Cllr Mirfin reported that he has received concerns over A Frame</li> <li>Advertisements and will check with LCC if these boards have approval.</li> <li>Cllr Ball reported that the boilers at the Almshouses were being serviced and credited the Remembrance Service and Parade in November as a success with the benefit of the road closure.</li> <li>Cllr Highton had received an enquiry to change the colour of the railing to the steps at the train station to something brighter as it is difficult to see. We believe this is a network rail issue and will refer the matter.</li> <li>Cllr Highton reported on the correspondence received from Pallisters being the land agent of the new owners of the Archbishops/Admiral Wood site reiterating that WPC would support a properly constituted and indemnified organisation in respect of the bike park. Pallisters set out a three-month timeframe limit in November to submit a viable arrangement with their clients. Borough Cllr Atherton is communicating with Pallisters and another party on this matter.</li> </ul>	2399/24 2400/24 2401/24
